

2021 LoanMart Community Involvement Scholarship

Community involvement has the power to bring about significant positive change that can impact countless lives. Working within your community is a great way to support local businesses, accomplish projects that can benefit many and allows the participant to gain perspective and build character. LoanMart believes in rewarding young adults who have taken the initiative to get involved in their community to make the world around them a better place.

LoanMart is offering a $2,000 Community Involvement Scholarship for a graduating high school student who has demonstrated how public works can positively affect a community.

Any student in the graduating class of a high school, who is a citizen or permanent resident of the United States of America, may submit an application.

The following must be included in all submissions:

1. Completed Scholarship Application form (attached)
2. Transcript reflecting academic standing
3. An essay of not more than 750 words summarizing how you have worked in your community to make an improvement or complete a project that would benefit people in the area. Do you think there is a resource, tool, or program that could be established to promote community involvement in your hometown? If so, include your ideas here! LoanMart wants you to be innovative so don't be afraid to think outside the box!

While not required, applicants are encouraged to provide additional evidence of notable achievements in community service, leadership, extracurricular activities, or any significant academic achievements.

Applications will only be accepted if they are presented in an orderly, concise and chronological manner. An application, including exhibits, should be confined to fewer than 20 pages in length (one side only). Mailed applications should be bound by a staple or paper clip.

The LoanMart Community Involvement Scholarship is for one year only and is not renewable.

All scholarships are conditioned upon the enrollment of the student in an undergraduate course in an accredited college, university or vocational school. Upon submission of evidence of enrollment, payment in the amount of $2,000.00 will be paid directly to the college, university, or vocational school for tuition or fees in accordance with IRS regulations.

By submitting an application for this scholarship, each applicant is agreeing that their name and/or image may be used in LoanMart promotional materials such as, but not limited to, newsletters, website, brochures and/or press releases.

The LoanMart Community Involvement Scholarship is awarded without regard to race, color, ethnicity, gender or sexual orientation.

Applications and supporting documents must be submitted by either email to Scholarships@loanmart.com by May 31st, 2021 or mailed to the address below and must be postmarked no later than May 31st, 2021.
